The case is one of political pension. Para 7 of the printed rules indicate that in some cases half pension has been 3d and in some others it has been discontinued. In case the pension is in indigent circumstances - and this has to be ascertained by enquiry by the State Home Treasury Office - the question of the grant of a reduced pension of Rs 2-8-0 to the successor son may be considered.

The petitioner Muhammad Sharfuddin is the son of late Muhammad Nizamuddin Sahib, a political pensioner of Mysore State who died on the 8th August, 1929. The petitioner is a student and is under the support of his mother. His only sister has been married and she is residing at Madras with her husband. The petitioner has no properties of any kind. He resides in a house which belongs to his grand-mother. The petitioner's mother's sister's sons are said to be helping him and his mother, now and then.

The humble petition of Muhammad Sharfuddin son of Muhammad Hizamuddin
 Saib a Mysore Political Pensioner

Most Respectfully Sheweth

Petitioner's father Muhammad Hizamuddin Sahib was enjoying a political pension of Rs. 5 from the Mysore Durbar sanction in Controller's No. 6 Pension dated 26-9-1904 and paid in P.P.O.
 No. 2852.

Petitioner submits that his father the said Muhammad Hizamuddin Sahib died a few months ago leaving in extremely indigent circumstances, his family consisting of petitioner, his mother and his sister. Petitioner is the only legal heir left to the deceased and his mother is dependant on him and his sister has been married.

The amount of Rs. /- charitably sanctioned by the Mysore Durbar was the only source of income to the family and the family was entirely dependant on it.

By the father's death the family has been launched on the world as heritable paupers with starvation staring in their faces.

Petitioner humbly submits that the hands of charity may be extended to the petitioner in his hour of need and mortification and the pension enjoyed by his father may be continued to him.

For which act of duty petitioner will as in duty bound be ever praying for your long life and prosperity.
